

City of Red Lodge
Police Commission
Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Police Commission was held at City Hall on April 16, 2013.

Members present: Chief of Police Richard Pringle, outgoing commission member Bill Larson, new member Colleen Stevenson, Ron Kotar and Bill Lehman.

Colleen Stevenson was appointed Chairman of the Commission.

The duties of the police commission were outlined as primarily two things. It is required to research applicants to the police department and make recommendations. The commission will also review and discuss any disciplinary actions or complaints from the public involving police officers.

A list of questions to be asked of officer hires will be provided the commission.

It was recommended that all members study the Montana Code Annotated.

Red Lodge currently employs 6 officers in addition to the Chief along with some reserve officers.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted

Colleen Stevenson
Chairman
Red Lodge Police Commission
